Turkey has an ancient winemaking history stretching back millennia, well before the classic civilisations of Greece and Rome helped to cement the popularity of wine as a cultural cornerstone.

Like Italy, Turkey benefits from a vast number of indigenous grape varieties, although many of the varieties are unknown to wine lovers beyond Turkey's borders. Varieties such as Kalecik Karası and Narince, occasionally blended with international varieties, appear on many labels and really showcase the diversity on offer.

- RED WINES -

LIGHT & FRUITY				G	1/2	B
16 Sevilen Nativus	Kalecik Karasi	Kalecik, Mid-North Anatolia, Turkey	13	31	51
13 Plato	Kalecik Karasi	Kalecik, Mid-North Anatolia, Turkey			64
Kalecik Karasi (KK for short) is its key red variety, showing similarities to Pinot Noir with its light body and bright autumnal and bakewell tart-like notes. KK tends to have more structure than Pinot, however, which has been bolstered here by 10 months in French barriques that lend textural tannins from the oak.
15 Pasaeli 6N	Karasakiz / Merlot	Canakkale, Gallipoli, Aegean Turkey			74
Pasaeli, founded by Seyit Karagözoglu in 2000, was a real discovery at the recent Wines of Turkey tasting in London with wines from both international and indigenous varieties showing real personality. This is a blend of both; 18% Merlot with 82% Karasakiz (which translates as 'black chewing gum'). There are only 50 hectares of the latter in the whole of Turkey, planted near the ruins of Troy at an altitude of 550 metres on Mount Ida. It is aged for six months in French and US oak. The medium bodied palate combines sour cherry, rosehip and balsamic vinegar flavours alongside a tart, lip-smacking acidity and a forest-floor finish.
Suvla, Blush	Karasakiz	Gallipoli, Aegean Turkey	18	48	88
(GOLD Medal Winner 2018 Melbourne International Wine Competition) "The nose is fresh and fragrant with a hint of balsamic. Soft and round, reminiscent of a young pinot noir with intense plum/strawberry notes with bits of fligs dusted in dried herbs"
SPICY & BOLD				G	1/2	B
15 2 nd Parcel Sevilen	Merlot	Menderes, Aegean Turkey	13	31	59
"The Seville Sevilentepe Parsel No: II Merlot was only vinified by the grapes grown in the 2nd parcel of 11 plots of 'Sevilentepe' vineyards. The Seville Sevilentepe Parsel No: II Merlot reproduces all the basic characteristics of the grape variety Merlot both in terms of color and aroma."
BOLDER & EARTHY				G	1/2	B
16 Majestik	Syrah /Kalecik Karasi	Izmir, Aegean Turkey	11	25	49
Red And Black Fruit With A Herbal Undertone, Juicy And Firm With Ripe Fruit. In Balance With Serious Backbone
15 Sevilen Parcel 1	Syrah	Sevilentepe, Aegean Turkey			54
15 IX'th Parcel	Cabernet Sauv	Menderes, Aegean Turkey	13	31	59
A generous melange of ripe intense berries on the nose layered with earthy mineral tones and attractive rosemary and thyme herbaceous complexity. Smooth, medium-bodied entry with intense juicy red and blackberry flavours that are in perfect harmony with well defined yet restrained ripe tannin. Everyway cooked red and white meat, aged cheeses, such as cheddar
15 Plato	Okuzgozu / Syrah	Denizli, Aegean Turkey			68

14	900	Cabernet Sauv	Gallipoli, Aegean Turkey			88
"A new Cabernet Sauvignon was born out of the first produce of a special vineyard located 900 meters above the sea level. Sevilen 900 owes its intense, yet elegant taste, complete with soft tannins, to the concentration of the grapes ripening for a relatively longer period due to the climatic conditions of higher elevations. Sevilen 900 is first matured for 14 months in French oak casks, and then 12 months in bottles, which offers a refined experience with a long lasting aromatic and silky taste"
15	Suvla	Syrah	Gallipoli, Aegean Turkey			91

15 900	Fume Blanc	Guney, Aegean Turkey			74
"I would strongly suggest you arm yourself with many bottles of Sevilen, 900 Fume Blanc. This is a bone-dry, super-refreshing Sauvignon Blanc grown on the limestone/clay of the Guney Plateau inland from Izmir and would be an absolute godsend on a hot day in Turkey. It reminds me rather of PHI Sauvignon Blanc from a particularly cool part of the Yarra Valley. Searing acidity, butalso have quite enough fruit as well."
